

Acknowledgments

This handbook was prepared by the Economic and Labor Market Information Bureau of New Hampshire Employment Security. We are indebted to the regulatory boards, agencies, and individuals who provided the information essential to this handbook. Without their cooperation and willingness to answer many questions, this publication would not be possible. We would also like to sincerely thank Ms. Pam Smarling, New Hampshire House Committee Researcher, for her assistance in identifying legislation that affects occupational licensing.

The following agency personnel were instrumental in the preparation of this material for the printed publication and information posted on the bureau web site:

Annette Nielsen, Economist

Michael Argiropolis, Labor Market Analyst

Elisabeth Richardson, Informational/Web site Representative

Douglas Hamer, Supervisor of Reproduction

Mark Robinson, Design Drafter

This workforce product was funded by a grant awarded by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration. The product was created by the grantee and does not necessarily reflect the official position of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership. This product is copyrighted by the institution that created it. Internal use by an organization and/or personal use by an individual for non-commercial purposes is permissible. All other uses require the prior authorization of the copyright owner.