

Aides

Aides help others through structured and ordered activities. These workers can be found in diverse workplaces, such as medical offices, theaters, libraries, or government offices. Some directly aide patients or clients, while some aide other workers.

Occupation by Minimum Education Level | Entry Wage | Average Wage | Job Outlook

Social-Conventional

Some College

Teacher Assistants | $19,572 | $28,276 | 221

Postsecondary Non-Degree Program

Medical Assistants | $26,635 | $32,767 | 80

Nursing Assistants | $23,595 | $29,173 | 342

High School Diploma or Equivalent

Eligibility Interviewers, Government Programs | $30,252 | $39,351 | 15

Psychiatric Aides | n/a | n/a | 5

Less Than High School

Ushers, Lobby Attendants, and Ticket Takers | $16,766 | $17,478 | 11

Conventional-Social

Master's Degree

Librarians | $36,088 | $53,174 | 32

Postsecondary Non-Degree Program

Ophthalmic Medical Technicians | $28,626 | $37,679 | 4

Library Technicians | $26,044 | $34,044 | 46

High School Diploma or Equivalent

Medical Secretaries | $27,424 | $35,137 | 105

Social and Human Service Assistants | $21,094 | $28,814 | 116

Telephone Operators | n/a | n/a | 2

Numbers inside the shapes represent Average Annual Openings

Data Source:
2014 Occupational
Employment & Wages;
Employment Projections,
2012-2022

n/a = not available

www.nhes.nh.gov/elmi/