Individuals must already be employed by a law enforcement agency to attend the Academy; outside students are not accepted. The local police department pays the student's salary while he or she attends. For full-time officers, a 16-week residency is required. The school is run according to paramilitary discipline, with reveille at 5:30 am and "lights out" at 9:30 pm.

PSTC also conducts academies for part-time law enforcement officers, who must complete a 200-hour curriculum. These are usually commuter (non-residential) schools with classes at night and on the weekends.

State Corrections Officers are required to attend a nine-week Corrections Academy held at the Police Training Facility in Concord, including both physical and classroom training, within six months of hire. State Probation and Parole Officers employed by the New Hampshire Department of Corrections are required to attend 208 hours of basic training and become certified within six months of hire. The Council approves a five-week curriculum for County Corrections Officers, who are trained by the New Hampshire Association of Counties.

The Council also holds periodic in-service training seminars and schools for full-time and part-time officers, regionally and in Concord. These are non-mandatory and at no cost to the student, but he or she must be an active police officer in order to attend.
