Securities Salesperson

Buy and sell stocks and bonds for individuals and organizations as representatives of stock brokerage firms, applying knowledge of securities, market conditions, government regulations, and financial circumstances of customers. Give information and advice regarding stocks, bonds, market conditions, and history and prospects of various corporations to prospective customers, based on interpretation of data from securities reports, financial periodicals, and stock-quotation-viewer screen, and persuade customers to buy or sell specific securities according to their financial needs. Record and transmit buy or sell orders to trading division in accordance with customer’s wishes. Calculate and record cost of transaction for billing purposes, using quotations received during transmittal of order. Develop portfolio (list) of selected investments for customer.
